

Choosing Dates for Your Events

I appeal to all BJC organisers of judo events.

When organising a Club, Area or Regional judo event, please avoid the BJC National Calendar dates.

To be even more certain of preventing a clash, please check with the BJC Head Office who can advise on the most recently booked dates and other BJC events being planned, all of which may affect the dates you choose.

Dates may vary if the venues should become unavailable but in general annual BJC National dates to avoid are:

- NTC Meetings
As and when required – via zoom
- HQC Meetings
Quarterly- see BJC website
- KATA - BJC NATIONAL TOURNAMENT
Annually – see BJC website
- SQUAD Training
See BJC website
- BJC AWARDS
2nd Saturday in March
- BJC Championships
OPEN Sunday of 'Mayday' first Bank Holiday weekend
CLOSED 3rd or 4th Sunday in November
- AGM
1st Sunday in July
- COURSES
St. Ives - Easter
Cromer - Whitsun Week
Lakes SS - Last week in July
Southport SS - First week in August
